BOARDROOM BATTLES

Creator event by LEADS

Boardroom Battles – Strategic Leadership Cohort is a high-intensity leadership simulation where participants step into C-suite roles and tackle real-world inspired business or sustainability crises. The event unfolds in stages—briefing & role assignment, strategy formulation, boardroom presentations, and a dynamic crossfire debate. With unexpected twists, live scrutiny from experts, and pressure to make tough calls, participants will experience what it takes to lead at the highest level.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Problem Briefing & Role Assignment (20 mins): Participants receive confidential role briefs.
- Strategy Formulation (45 mins): Individuals craft strategic action plans under pressure.
- Boardroom Presentations (60 mins): Plans are presented before a faculty–industry panel simulating executive scrutiny.
- Crossfire Debate (30 mins): Selected participants defend their decisions in a dynamic, high-stakes debate with unexpected twists.
- Feedback & Recognition (15 mins): Expert panel shares insights, followed by certificate distribution.

Evaluation will be based on strategic depth, clarity of communication, ethical considerations, handling of crossfire, and overall impact. It is an individual event.

This challenge sharpens decision-making, ethical reasoning, and executive communication, while providing valuable feedback from faculty and industry leaders.
